

Rule 51. Complaint of Judicial Misconduct or Disability

The procedures for processing a complaint of judicial misconduct or disability are pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 372(c). The clerk will provide copies of these procedures on request.

Rule 52. Fees(a) Judicial Conference Schedule of Fees.

- (1) General. The fees charged by the clerk must be the fees prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1913 or by this rule. No fees may be charged for services rendered on behalf of the United States. Unless a fee is listed in the Judicial Conference schedule or in this rule, there is no fee.
- (2) Docketing Fee. The docketing fee will be paid to the trial court clerk on filing a notice of appeal in that court. The docketing fee will be paid to this court's clerk on filing any other proceeding, including an appeal or petition for review from the Patent and Trademark Office or the Merit Systems Protection Board, or any other agency, and including an extraordinary writ.
- (3) Judicial Conference Schedule of Fees.
 - (A) For docketing a case on appeal or review, or docketing any other proceeding: $100. A separate fee must be paid by each party filing a notice of appeal in a district court, but parties filing a joint notice of appeal in a district court are required to pay only one fee. A docketing fee will not be charged for the docketing of a petition for permission to appeal, unless the appeal is allowed.
 - (B) For every search of the records of the court and certifying the results: $15.
 - (C) For certifying any document or paper, whether the certification is made on the document or by separate instrument: $5.
 - (D) For reproducing any record or paper: 50 cents per page. This fee applies to paper copies made from original documents or from microfiche or microfilm reproductions of the original records.
 - (E) For reproduction of magnetic tape recordings, cassette or reel-to-reel: $15 including the cost of materials.
